

ELECTRIC Paragon E

FREE-HANGING, CEILING- OR WALL-MOUNTED

Perfect wherever a very large screen is required, the wall- or ceiling-mounted Paragon E electric projection screen features a heavy-duty design ideal for auditoriums and lecture halls. Housed in an aluminum case that can be suspended anywhere, the Paragon E has an insulated motor to provide smooth, quiet operation.

THIS SCREEN IS FREE-HANGING
Free-hanging, fiberglass-backed projection screen maintains flatness thanks to the weight of the screen and bottom dowel.
